21st Annual CSE Graduate Research Conference

Wednesday, March 26, 2008

SPONSORSHIP GUIDELINES

Your organization's financial support of 21st Annual CSE Graduate Research Conference is proof of a long-term relationship and commitment with the Department of Computer Science and Engineering and the Computer Science and Engineering Graduate Student Association. As an annual event, the CSE Graduate Research Conference showcases the best graduate students in the Department of Computer Science and Engineering, their talents, and their research. Your support of the conference will assist us in organizing an extremely successful program.

Corporate Support Levels (all amounts in U.S. dollars)

Support Level	Perquisite
Diamond — $5,000	- Advanced recognition as a Diamond supporter in print and on the web - Recognized as a Diamond supporter in the conference program - Provision of two (2) tables during the conference poster session and reception to interact with conference attendees - Company logo on banners in the concourse and the conference room - Company logo displayed on signage at the venue entrance - Two (2) company-provided items distributed to attendees along with the conference program and proceedings 30-minute speaking slot during the conference * Diamond supporters are eligible to sponsor the "Best Paper Award"
Gold — $2,500	- Advanced recognition as a Gold supporter in print and on the web - Recognized as a Gold supporter in the conference program - Provision of one (1) table during the conference poster session and reception to interact with conference attendees - Company logo on banners in the concourse and the conference room - Company logo displayed on signage at the venue entrance - One (1) company-provided item distributed to students along with the conference program and proceedings * Gold supporters are eligible to sponsor the "Best Poster Award"
Silver — $100 to $1,000	- Advanced recognition as a Silver supporter in print and on the web - Recognized as a Silver supporter in conference program - Provision of one (1) table during the conference poster session and reception to interact with conference attendees